How did you hear about Outback Rainbow Youth? _____

Aims of the Outback Rainbow Youth Group:

- To provide opportunities for LGBTQIA+ youth to socialise in a relaxed, safe and fun environment
- To improve access to mental and physical health services for LGBTQIA+ youth
- To reduce stigma surrounding LGBTQIA+ youth within the Broken Hill community
- To increase knowledge and awareness of LGBTQIA+ youth issues in the community
- To exchange ideas and work together to improve outcomes for LGBTQIA+ youth
- To celebrate the contribution that LGBTQIA+ youth make to the community
- To advise headspace Broken Hill on LGBTQIA+ topics and issues, so that headspace Broken Hill can better meet the needs of LGBTQIA+ youth within the community

Members of the Outback Rainbow Youth Group agree to:

- Greet new members warmly and be mindful of the challenges that individuals face when joining a new group
- Use an individual's preferred name and pronoun
- Respect each other's opinions, beliefs and views, and agree to disagree on some things
- Take responsibility for their own wellbeing and let headspace Broken Hill staff know if they are not okay
- Be aware of others personal boundaries and do not overstep them
- Not pressure others for personal information
- Ensure conversations are age appropriate for the youngest person attending
- Not engage in behaviours others may find rude, offensive or aggressive
- Not make assumptions or judgements about another's identity, sex, gender, body, sexuality, culture, beliefs, dis/ability, mental health, education, class, age, occupation or responsibilities
- Remember that this is a confidential group and no information on members is to be shared with people outside the group
- Remember that this group encourages you to share your views, stories and experiences, whilst at the same time being mindful of others

I have read and understand the Outback Rainbow Youth Terms of Reference document and agree to the responsibilities I have as a group member.
